WIREFRAME

By: Nhilbert Jay E. Valente
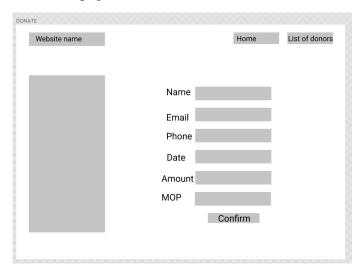

Course: CMSC 126

Home page -

1. On the right corner, shows the website's name : Save Paws for Life
2. On the left corner are tabs for home (current page) and list of donors that will redirect user to another page
3. The big box in the middle presents sliding pictures of stray animals.
4. Underneath it is some basic but important information that user needs to know about stray animals (E.g.: statistics on how many strays there are in the country/world)
5. The donate button that will redirect user to another page for them to send their details.

List of Donors page –

1. On the right corner, shows the website's name : Save Paws for Life
2. On the left corner are tabs for home that will redirect user to another page and list of donors (current page)
3. Shows the heading of the page with a short thank you message below it.
4. Each line represents the donor's name and when they donated.

Donate page –

1.	On the right corner, shows the website's name : Save Paws for Life On the left corner are tabs for home and list of donors that will redirect user to their respective pages.

2.	The box in the side is a picture of a stray animal with a "thank you" message imposed on it.

3.	This page asks for the user's name, email, phone number, today's (the day they donated) date, amount they are willing to donate and Mode of Payment.

4.	A button confirm that will add the user data to the database.